rel. Counsel for Dis. v. Sipp, 314 Neb. 208, 989 N.W.2d 712 (2023). During the time the respondent was under investigation for those charges, he engaged in the misconduct set forth in the formal charges and summarized below. The respondent's license remains suspended.

On February 28, 2024, the Counsel for Discipline of the Nebraska Supreme Court, the relator, filed formal charges against the respondent. The charges consisted of 13 counts arising from his representation of 13 separate clients and allege that by his actions, the respondent violated his oath of office as an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Nebraska, as provided by Neb. Rev. Stat. § 7-104 (Reissue 2022), and violated several provisions of the Nebraska Rules of Professional Conduct. In each count, it was alleged that the respondent neglected his client's case, Neb. Ct. R. of Prof. Cond. § 3-501.3; failed to communicate with his client, Neb. Ct. R. of Prof. Cond. § 3-501.4; and failed to respond to the investigation of the relator, Neb. Ct. R. of Prof. Cond. § 3-508.1. Counts I through V additionally alleged that the respondent engaged in conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice, Neb. Ct. R. of Prof. Cond. § 3-508.4(d) (rev. 2016). Counts III, V, VI, VIII, IX, XI, and XII of the formal charges also alleged that the respondent failed to provide an accounting of his time to his client, Neb. Ct. R. of Prof. Cond. § 3-501.5, and failed to return materials to the client upon termination of the representation, Neb. Ct. R. of Prof. Cond. § 3-501.16. Count VI alleged that the respondent misappropriated $9,200 of his client's funds, committed a criminal act, and engaged in conduct involving dishonesty and fraud, all in violation of § 3-508.4(b) and (c).

The respondent was personally served with summons and the formal charges on March 21, 2024. The respondent failed to file an answer to the formal charges. On April 23, the relator filed a motion for judgment on the pleadings. The respondent did not respond to the motion for judgment on the pleadings. On May 13, we granted the motion for judgment on the pleadings as to the facts.

On June 25, 2024, the respondent filed a voluntary surrender of his license to practice law. The respondent states that, for purposes of this voluntary surrender, he freely and voluntarily consents to the entry of an order of disbarment and waives his right to notice, hearing, or appearance prior to the entry of disbarment.

ANALYSIS

Neb. Ct. R. § 3-315 of the disciplinary rules provides in pertinent part:

(A) Once a Grievance, a Complaint, or a Formal Charge has been filed, suggested, or indicated against a member, the member may voluntarily surrender his or her license.

(1) The voluntary surrender of license shall state in writing that the member knowingly admits or knowingly does not challenge or contest the truth of the suggested or indicated Grievance, Complaint, or Formal Charge and waives all proceedings against him or her in connection therewith.

Pursuant to § 3-315 of the disciplinary rules, we find that the respondent has voluntarily surrendered his license to practice law and knowingly does not challenge or contest the truth of the allegations made against him. Further, the respondent has waived all proceedings against him in connection therewith. We further find that the respondent has consented to the entry of an order of disbarment.

CONCLUSION

Upon due consideration, the court accepts the respondent's voluntary surrender of his license to practice law, finds that the respondent should be disbarred, and hereby orders him disbarred from the practice of law in the State of Nebraska, effective immediately.
